

In a typical year flutist ŽOFIE VOKÁLKOVÁ is featured in over 150 solo and chamber music concerts. A Prague native, Vokálková is a graduate of Prague Conservatory. She studied with Frantisek Malotin, Christian Lardé, Meinhardt Niedermayer, and James Galway. She won prizes at a number of international performance competitions, has been an orchestral soloist in Europe, Asia, and the United States, and has been featured in numerous radio broadcasts and compact disc recordings. Vokálková is currently flute soloist for the orchestras Virtuosi di Praga and Prague Symphony Orchestra. Previously she has been first orchestral flute, Prague Symphony Orchestra, and Flute Professor at Prague Conservatory.

KATHLEEN SCHEIDE teaches harpsichord at Westminster Choir College, Princeton, and is Organist/choirmaster at All Hallows Episcopal Church near Philadelphia. Dr. Scheide holds degrees from the New England Conservatory (with honors) and the University of Southern California (organ prize), where her teachers included John Gibbons and Cherry Rhodes. She has performed as an organ and harpsichord soloist in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Europe, the Far East and the Caribbean; and has received touring artist grants from the Arkansas Arts Council, the California Arts Council, and the American Embassy, Vienna. She is a published composer with a large imprint discography.